Bachelor of Business in Sport

Graduates from the Australian College of Sport & Fitness may now gain credit towards a Bachelor of Business in Sport at AMOS – The International Sport Business School.

AMOS is the first French business school to specialize in sport business offering an Undergraduate Bachelor degree and a Postgraduate Master of Business degree in Sport. The school trains managers, sales agents and highly skilled entrepreneurs in all areas of sport business. AMOS aims at being the reference point and the interlocutor of the sporting movement. It integrates an international dimension through its seminars abroad, its English conferences, its bilingual class, its school of integrated languages and through its integration in European program of exchanges – ERASMUS.

Students may be able to receive upto two years' credit towards the Bachelor of Business in Sport at AMOS. The usual duration of the degree is 3 years. Thus, students can enter into their third year of study for the Bachelor of Business at AMOS. In addition, the business school has campuses in Paris, Bordeaux, Lyon and Lille.

This is a great opportunity for our students to extend their studies in the field of Sport Business overseas, and their career to the next level.

The Bachelor of Business in Sport is for those who want to learn about Sports Marketing, Environmental Sports & Logistics, Media & Communications and Sport Commerce & Entrepreneurship.

Who may be eligible for the course credit?

Students who have completed the Diploma of Sport & Recreation Management – SIS50115 at the Australian College of Sport & Fitness.
